

Charles G. Rodriguez

chuckrod8250@gmail.com • 210-882-0071

Nationality: United States of America

Military Rank Held: Major General, U.S. Army Retired

Clearance: TS/SCI: lapsed upon retirement in 2009

<https://www.nationalguard.mil/portals/31/Features/ngbgomo/bio/1/1419.html>

San Antonio, Texas

UPDATED: January 4, 2024

An accomplished strategic planner, public affairs communicator, project and program manager, and administrator leading national disaster response and recovery missions in support of civilian authorities on behalf of the governor. Served as a tactical communications commander, leader of a military training academy, and homeland defense planner and operations lead across all three Army components: active, reserve, and guard. Represented the National Guard Bureau's State Sponsorship Program and international military training exchanges with senior military leaders in the Czech Republic, the Republic of Singapore, the Republic of Chile, Mexico, Romania, and Ecuador. Promoted by Governor Perry in 2006 to the honorary rank of Texas Lieutenant General; served as U.S. Army Major General, with a final duty assignment as The Adjutant General of Texas (2005-2009).

Hispanic Association of Colleges and Universities

Education

Ph.D. in Philanthropic Leader Studies
The Union Institute and University (OH)

Master of Business Administration in Marketing

Publications

- The Patriots' Casa: An Academic Home for the Brave. (2014). Texas A&M University-San Antonio. Available at <http://www.tamusa.edu/Patriots-Casa>